

It's Hurricane Season.

Are you prepared?

The chances that a hurricane will strike during your vacation are small, but it is important you take precautions.

4 Things to Know About Hurricanes Before You Arrive

- 1 Your vacation could be in jeopardy.
If a hurricane strikes before or during your stay, your vacation may need to be cancelled or cut short.
- 2 Now is the time to take precautions.
We offer an optional travel insurance plan that provides coverage for named hurricanes. The plan also provides coverage if you must cancel or interrupt your trip for other covered reasons such as sickness, injury, job loss, and other unforeseen circumstances.
- 3 If a mandatory hurricane evacuation is ordered, you are not entitled to a refund of your missed vacation days. If travel insurance is purchased, you may be entitled to a refund of the prorated rent for each night of your vacation missed.*

- 4 Even if you've initially declined this coverage, it's not too late.
You can elect to purchase coverage up to the date the final rental payment is made or 30 days prior to arrival, whichever comes first. Making a last minute reservation? You can elect to purchase the insurance less than 30 days prior to arrival if you purchase the insurance and pay for your trip in full at the same time.

The Insurer will pay trip cancellation or interruption benefits up to the Maximum Limit shown on the Schedule of Benefits if a Trip is canceled or interrupted due to a named hurricane causing cancellation of travel to the Insured's Destination that is inaccessible or uninhabitable. The Company will only pay benefits for losses occurring within 30 calendar days after the named hurricane makes the Insured's Destination uninhabitable or inaccessible. An Insured's Destination is uninhabitable if: (i) the building structure itself is unstable and there is a risk of collapse in whole or in part; (ii) there is exterior or structural damage allowing elemental intrusion, such as rain, wind, hail or flood; (iii) immediate safety hazards have yet to be cleared, such as debris on roofs or downed electrical lines; or (iv) the rental is without electricity or water. An Insured's Destination is inaccessible if he or she cannot reach the property by the original mode of transportation. Benefits are not payable if a hurricane is named on or before the effective date of the Insured's Trip Cancellation coverage.
